2. Data Processor's Commitments

2.1. Compliance With Applicable Laws

Data Processor shall comply with all regulations regarding the protection of personal data provided for in this Data Processing Agreement and in applicable law. The Data Processor shall assist the Data Controller in ensuring and documenting that the Data Controller complies with its obligations under applicable law on the processing of personal data.

The Data Processor shall comply with the Instructions and practices provided by the Data Controller with regard to Processing of Personal Data, unless otherwise provided by applicable law. In that case, the Data Processor shall notify the Data Controller of the reason that the instruction cannot be followed unless such notification is not allowed due to the protection of important interests to society or the community.

2.2. Processing Restrictions

The Data Processor shall only process Personal Data in accordance with instructions from the Data Controller. The Data Processor shall not process Personal Data beyond the requirements necessary to comply with the obligations under the Agreement without prior written agreement or written Instructions from the Data Controller.

2.3. Information Security

2.3.1. Duty to ensure information security

The Data Processor shall take all measures necessary under Article 32 of the Regulation, including planned, systematic, organisational and technical measures, ensuring adequate confidentiality, integrity, and availability of information in the processing of personal data. Description of information security measures shall be made available to the Data Controller on request.

2.3.2 . Assessment of measures

In assessing the technical and organisational measures to be implemented, the Data Processor, in consultation with the Data Controller, will take into account:

- Best practices,
- The cost of implementation
- The nature and extent of treatment
- Seriousness of the risk to the individual's rights in processing their personal data

The Data Processor shall, in consultation with the Data Controller, consider:

- Anonymising and encrypting Personal Information
- The ability to ensure ongoing confidentiality, that is the integrity, availability and robustness of systems for processing and services
- The ability to restore availability and access to personal information on time in case of physical or technical events affecting the systems
- A process of regular testing, evaluation and evaluation of the effectiveness of technical and organizational measures for the safety of the treatment

2.3.3. Information Requests from Affected Individuals

Considering the nature of the processing, the Data Processor shall, as far as possible, implement technical and organizational measures to assist the Data Controller to respond to inquiries regarding the exercise of the rights of the data subjects.

2.3.4. Assistance to the Data Controller

The Data Processor shall provide assistance so that the Data Controller can safeguard their own responsibility according to applicable laws and regulations, including assisting the Data Controller by:

- Implementing technical and organizational measures as mentioned previously
- Complying with reporting obligations to supervisory authorities and registered persons in the case of any deviations
- Performing privacy impact assessments
- Engaging in early discussions with responsible parties when an assessment of privacy implications makes it necessary
- Informing the Data Controller if the Data Processor considers that an instruction from Data Controller is in violation of relevant privacy policies.

Assistance as mentioned above shall be performed to the extent required by the Data Controller's need, the nature of the processing and the information available to Data Processor, cf. Regulation Article 28 (3) (f).
